

Also, we, the said Judges—at the close of an Election held on the same day, and year aforesaid, in the said districts of said County, distinguished as aforesaid, for the purpose of electing a Register of Wills for Worcester County aforesaid—having this day assembled as aforesaid, with the books of the polls endorsed as aforesaid, and having cast up the whole number of votes given in said districts, according to the said certificates, it appears that George W. Bishop has the greatest number of legal votes for Register of Wills for Worcester County; whereupon we do determine, declare and return, that the said George W. Bishop is duly elected.

Also, we, the said Judges—at the colse of an Election held on the same day and year aforesaid, in the said districts of said County, distinguished as aforesaid, for the purpose of electing a Sheriff for Worcester County aforesaid—having this day assembled as aforesaid, with the books of the polls endorsed as aforesaid, and having cast up the whole number of votes given in said districts, according to the said certificates, it appears that Charles Parker has the greatest number of votes for Sheriff of Worcester County, whereupon we do determine, declare and return, that the said Charles Parker is duly elected.

And, we, the said Judges—at the close of an Election held on the same day and year, aforesaid, in the said districts of said County, distinguished as aforesaid, for the purpose of electing five County Commissioners for Worcester County, aforesaid—having this day assembled as aforesaid, with the books of the polls endorsed as aforesaid, and having cast up the whole number of votes given in said districts, according to the said certificates, it appears that John Dale, James Whaley, John Bishop, William J. Aydelotte, and Rowland E. Bevans, have the greatest number of legal votes for County Commissioners of Worcester County; whereupon we do determine, declare, and return, that the said John Dale, James Whaley, John Bishop, William J. Aydelotte, and Rowland E. Bevans are duly elected.

Also, we, the said Judges—at the close of an Election held on the same day and year, in the said districts of said County, distinguished as aforesaid, for a Surveyor for Worcester County—having this day assembled as aforesaid, with the books of the polls endorsed as aforesaid, and having cast up the whole number of votes given in said districts, according to the said certificates, it appears that William Shockley has the greatest number of legal votes for Surveyor, for Worcester County, whereupon we do determine, declare and return, that the said William Shockley is duly elected.

Also, we, the said Judges—at the close of an Election held on the same day and year, in the said districts of said County, distinguished as aforesaid, for a Wreck Master for Worcester County—having this day assembled as aforesaid, with the books of the polls endorsed as aforesaid, and having cast up the whole num-